He's a Rogue With No Name, and for the right price he'll get you out of trouble, But cross him, and you'll never pay enough...

It's amazing what you learn, living on the run. Fleeing for my life, convicted on trumped-up charges, and denied the use of my own name, I've stayed one step ahead of the Imperial Guard by focusing on one thing: taking care of myself first. So I don't know where you heard that ridiculous rumor about me helping people around the Empire.

Only a few things have been constant while I've been on the run. My desire for revenge against the person who framed me tops the list. And then there's my luck—I can always count on it to be bad...
